OLD SONGS FOR NEW VOICES

- A COMMUNITY WORKSHOP FOR WOMEN

A safe space to sing together through stories of displacement, journey and transition.

IN PARTNER WITH MAKETANK

THIS THREE-HOUR TASTER WORKSHOP WITH VOCALIST AND MUSICIAN ANNA-HELENA MCLEAN OPENS A SAFE SPACE TO SING TOGETHER THROUGH STORIES OF DISPLACEMENT, JOURNEY AND TRANSITION.

A SINGING WORKSHOP FOR REFUGEE WOMEN

Anna-Helena joins Maketank in offering this special workshop to networks within Exeter who are part of the refugee community and their closely associated circles

WHAT TO EXPECT

- A safe space for vocal play
- Building story through soundscapes
- Accessing your vocal flexibility
- Communal song learning

HOW TO JOIN:

Visit the Maketank website (scan QR code below) to confirm your place or visit <https://www.maketank.org.uk/event-details/old-songs-for-new-voices-a-community-workshop-for-women>

The voice and singing workshop is for singers and non singers alike. The workshop will end with a potluck lunch to share experiences with the possibility for more singing (time tbd). No commitment to stay but you are warmly invited to and encouraged to bring your own lunch.

Places are free, but booking is essential as spaces are limited.
